EFFECT: (1) Adds intent language regarding the purpose of creating the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations (Office) and specifying that collective bargaining legislation would be administered by the Public Employment Relations Commission. (2) Specifies that the Office will assist the Legislature in managing the process of collective bargaining and that one of its duties includes conducting negotiations on behalf of the employer. (3) Specifies that the Office is to consider common frameworks for grievance procedures and disciplinary actions, rather than consider grievance procedures and disciplinary actions.
